SUBJECT: Meeting held by the "China Anti-British and Anti-American Association".

Between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. February 24, the "China Anti-British and Anti-American Association" held a meeting on the 2nd floor parlour of the Park Hotel, No. 164 Bubbling Well Road. About 400 persons attended. Chow Fong Ching (周邦俊), Manager of the Great China Dispensary, who was presiding over the meeting, delivered a speech on the significance of the meeting. Following this, Chen Ya Fu (陳亞夫), representative of the Wharf Coolies Mutual Aid Association, who was a member of the Presidium, made a report relating to the preparatory matters of the meeting. 25 members of the Standing Committee were elected, and the regulations of the Association were passed. Sung Shao Kong (孫紹康), President of the Shanghai Second Special District Court, and Zee Ji Ling (徐乾麟), Chief of local benevolent societies, declared that Britain and America had carried out aggression against China, and that the Japanese Army has now eliminated Britain and America and emancipated China, so as to bring about Sino-Japanese friendship. Then the Commander of the Japanese Army delivered a speech. Finally, a dinner party having taken place, the meeting terminated.

The Association was promoted by the following three organisations :-

- 1) The Wharf Coolies Mutual Aid Association (碼頭苦工互助會) with an office on North
